

2001 AERA Annual Meeting
Co-Sponsored by Divisions B & G

The AERA COMMISSION ON RESEARCH IN BLACK EDUCATION

Seattle, Washington
Session 5.30

“Educational Excellence Expo: Search for Knowledge in Our Cultural Practice”

April 10, 2001

4:05 – 6:05, Convention Center, Room 602-604, 4th Floor

In a people's rise from oppression to grace, a turning point comes when thinkers determined to stop the downward slide get together to study causes of common problems, think out solutions and organize ways to apply them.

—Ayi Kwei Armah, Osiris Rising

Joyce E. King, Medgar Evers College, CUNY & CORIBE Chair/Organizer
Michèle Foster, Claremont Graduate School & OERI, Discussant

1. Yvonne Lefcourt, Kapunahala Elementary School & Corrina Luna, Wai'anae Elementary School), Kamehameha Program, Honolulu, Hawaii
2. Paula Hooper, Paige Academy, Roxbury-Boston
3. Theresa Perry, Shirley Malone-Fenner, Joanne M. Cordova & Judy Richards, Wheelock College/Graham Parks School, Boston: The Beaufort (South Carolina) Model: Creating an Indigenous Teacher Resource-Integrating the Gullah Culture
4. Merle T. Harris, The Southern Initiative of The Algebra Project
5. Beth Warren, Ann Rosebery & Josiane Hudicourt-Barnes, Chèche Konnen Center, TERC, Boston
6. Lisa Delpit & Joan Wynne, Urban Teacher Leader Program, Peachtree Urban Writing Project, Georgia State University Center for Urban Educational Excellence, CRIM Center, Atlanta, GA
7. Nicole Pinkert, Culturally Responsible Technology, U. of Michigan
8. Abdulalim Shabazz, Excellence in Math Instruction, Lincoln University, PA
9. Carol D. Lee, Cultural Modeling Project, Northwestern Univ.
10. Hassimi Maiga, Songhoy Language & Culture Online, Medgar Evers College, CUNY